Numb. 5143

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday August 1. to Tuesday August 4. 1713.

Kenſington, Auguſt 2.

THE following Addreſs from the County of Hereford, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Scudamore and Sir Thomas Morgan, Bart. Knights of the Shire for the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Grand Jury of the County of Hereford, aſſembled at the Quarter Seſſions.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your moſt loyal Subjects, beg leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the invaluable Bleſſing of Peace, which is ſo peculiarly glorious to Your Majeſty, ſo advantageous to Europe, that even thoſe Few, that were Enemies to their own Welfare, muſt at length join with us in a grateful Senſe of Your Charitable Goodneſs which, in ſpight of themſelves, hath made them happy.

The Care Your Majeſty has taken, in ſecuring to Poſterity the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, demonſtrates, That Your Majeſty's Goodneſs is too Extenſive to be confined by the Period of Your own Life.

We ſhall gladly embrace all Opportunities, to demonſtrate our profoundeſt Duty and Loyalty to Your Sacred Perſon and Government, by Cultivating the Arts of Peace, and continuing to return faithful and loyal Perſons to repreſent us in Parliament; and hope Your Majeſty will never want a Miniſtry as Zealous and Able to ſerve You, as what You now employ, ſo diſtinguiſhing a Part of which, 'tis the Honour of our Country to have produced.

That GOD will long continue Your Majeſty's Life a Bleſſing to theſe Kingdoms, and all Europe, is the hearty Prayer of Your Majeſty's moſt grateful and obedient Subjects.

The following Addreſſes were preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Ormond, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, at their General Quarter Aſſembly, held at the Tholſell of the ſaid City, the 17th of July, 1713.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Kildare, at a General Aſſizes and Goal Delivery held at Naas, in and for the ſaid County, on the 10th of July, 1713.

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Waterford, at an Aſſize held for the ſaid County, the 9th of July, 1713.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commons of the Town and County of Drogheda, the 10th Day of July, 1713.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Hanover, Auguſt 1. N. S. Count Schonborn, the Emperor's Miniſter, hath left this Place in order to return to Hamburgh. We have receiv'd advice from Pomerania, that Sixteen hundred Muſcovite and Saxon Foot have made a Deſcent in the Iſle of Rugen with the Loſs of only ſix Men. The Swedes that endeavour'd to oppoſe their Landing, were diſpers'd by the Guns of their Frigats. They immediately ſent back their Tranſport Ships to bring the ſame number of Forces to join them from Gripſwalde. The next Day they advanced in the Iſle without meeting any Swediſh Troops, and have poſted themſelves in an advantageous Place, where they expect a Reinforcement. Theſe Letters add, that Matters were preparing to beſiege Stetin in Form, the Garriſon of which is ſaid to conſiſt of Two thouſand Men. It was thought, that the King of Pruſſia would have furniſh'd the Artillery for this Siege, but we are now aſſur'd that his Majeſty is reſolved to remain Neuter, and the Beſiegers expect twenty Pieces of Canron, and twelve Mortars from Copenhagen. The Daniſh Troops are marching out of Holſtein into Pomerania, and it is ſaid they are to blockade Stralſundt. There is likewiſe a Daniſh Squadron at Sea, to facilitate the reduction of Swediſh Pomerania.

Hamburgh, Auguſt 4. N. S. We have receiv'd advice, that on the 26th paſt, the King of Pruſſia ſignify'd in Writing to Prince Menzikoff, Count Flemming, and Monſieur Dewitz, that he was reſolved not to concern himſelf any way in the War of the North; upon which, Prince Menzikoff went from Berlin the next Day. The Muſcovites and Saxons having taken Poſſeſſion of the Iſle of Rugen, are preparing to attack the Port of Daunholm, ſituate in the extreme part of that Iſle. Seventeen Deſerters are lately come from Tonningen, to the Daniſh Camp before that Place. They all agree that the Garriſon is reduced, by Sickneſs aud Deſertion, to Five hundred Men, and that the Fortreſs can't hold out above three Weeks at fartheſt. Major General Ranck, who went to the King of Sweden at Adrianople to propoſe a Marriage between the Princeſs his Siſter, and the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe Caſſel, has left that Place without having ſucceeded in his Negotiation. Letters from Poland inform us that King Auguſtus had receiv'd an account from his Ambaſſador at the Ottoman Port, that on the 25th of June, a Treaty of Peace was concluded between the Grand Signior and the Czar. The next Day it was publiſh'd, and the Turks have obſerved a Day of Thankſgiving for it. The King of Sweden continu'd at a Village within two Leagues of Adrianople.

Hague, Auguſt 9. N. S. On the 7th the Earl of Strafford was in Conference with the Deputies of the States-General, as likewiſe with the Miniſters of the ſeveral Princes engaged in the War of the North; and this Morning his Excellency preſented a Memorial to the States-General on that Subject. We have received Advice from the Camp before Landau, that the French had lately ſet the Arſenal of that Place on Fire with their Bombs, and had brought their Approaches ſo near, that they thought within a

Week
